

Navy May Meet Much Improved Army Team

CADETS LIKELY TO COME WITH A RUSH

Team Has Been Brought Along Slowly and May Improve Much at Windup.

ARMY HOPES LOOKING UP

Last Two Big Scores and Navy's Trouble With State Bring Cheer—Gridiron Notes.

The Army team is in the last two weeks of its campaign, and with brisk driving in that time it would be surprising to see the eleven come along rapidly, for it has been handled in such a manner that it probably can absorb a good deal of football in immediate preparation for the Navy game. The team has been brought along slowly by Coach Daly, every game prior to the Navy clash being taken as it came without any hurrying or special preparation. So it may be that the soldiers will come with a rush in the last two weeks.

Following three stiff games came two which were so easy that the big scores made in them may or may not have indicated that the West Pointers were getting into their stride and getting together. The small score by the Navy against Penn State didn't make the Army folks downcast over their prospects.

Lehigh and Lafayette are tuning up this week for their annual game. These eleven have met three opponents in common. Yale beat Lafayette, 27 to 0, and Lehigh, 27 to 0. The Lafayette-Lehigh game was the only one in which Lehigh beat Lafayette, 7 to 0. The other common foe was Swarthmore, beaten 19 to 0 by Lafayette and 50 to 0 by Lehigh.

"Numbering of players would help officials," says a well known coach. "There have been cases in which forward passes were received by yards and without the officials being wise. A team hardly could get away with an illegal play of this sort were the players numbered."

"Eleven Thorpe and Odina," exults a college paper over the showing of its team. Just the same we'd be willing to take a chance against it with a team composed of eleven Thorpes without any Odina.

Coach Brooks of Penn says the Michigan line weighs 1,100 pounds from tackle to tackle—a mere featherweight average of 220 pounds a man.

Barring the fact that Hazard and Gardner have sprained shoulders, Casey and MacNeil each have a bad knee, Geib wrenched an ankle, which already was weak, and that Fraser and Andrews are the worse for wear, but without special injuries, the Brown team begins its final stretch fit as a fiddle.

The Andover football players are taking time for their final conference. Practice for next season has begun.

Trumbull will be at centre for Harvard in the Yale game. Rocky did well, but Trumbull is a better player and is a stimulus to the whole eleven.

There was a report in Cambridge that a student had offered to sell a pair of Harvard-Yale seats for $15 each. We should care to do this unless we expected to be graduated right after the game and then move to Tasmania.

The number 13 played a prominent part in the latest batch of football scores. Michigan beat Penn, 13 to 0; 13 points were made in the Cornell game; W. and J. made 13 points more than Pittsburgh; Lehigh made 13 more than Harvard; Delaware won by a score of 13 to 13; Colgate swatted Syracuse, 35 to 13; Chicago defeated Minnesota, 21 to 7, all of which means that somebody is going to lose next Saturday.

Yards gained by Chicago against Minnesota were 216, according to one set of figures; 171 according to another. One at Chicago averaging 46 yards on punts—a whopping average—another 34. Apparently football needs one more official, an official meter.

News Item: Street made great progress through the Harvard line last year, also ending on track plays.

How time flies!

TWO SETS OF BACKS USED.

Navy Employs Eight Men Behind Line in Long Scrimmage.

ANNAPOIS, Md., Nov. 18.—Despite the score made against Penn State on Saturday there was no sign at practice last afternoon that the Naval Academy team had weakened in the least. Through a long practice game with the scrubs the coaches drove the team at a faster pace than has been maintained this season, a succession of backs being used. The first arrangement had Nichols in the quarter, McCreary and Failing at the halves and Harrison at fullback. This is almost surely the combination that will be used at the start of the Army game. Nichols, weighing 180 pounds or over, and the quartet averaging 174 pounds. Nichols continued his brilliant punting, scoring two touchdowns. The team was used largely on the offensive, the ball being carried from one end of the field to the other several times and the attack being kept hot. It was noted that the strong scrum could do nothing with it. Later Mitchell was used at the quarter and Leonard, Blodgett and Miles further back.

PARTISANS OF BOTH WARY.

odds 10 to 9 on Harvard to Beat Yale, but Betters Wait.

About $1,500 was wagered yesterday in the financial district on Harvard against Yale at odds of 10 to 9. Betting continues to be very light considering the lateness of the season, but the betting bookers feel that many supporters of the colleges are holding back for the "dog" before making their wagers. Even money is offered that Yale will not make a touchdown and $100 even bet that Harvard will score. Bookies are an even money favorite to kick the first goal.

The Navy is still a 10 to 6 favorite over the Army and there are offerings of 25 to 1 that the University of Pennsylvania will beat Cornell.

Princeton May Meet Michigan.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 18.—Coach East was not present at the football meeting here to-night, as he has left for the east, where he will be a side line spectator at the Yale-Harvard and Army-Michigan games. The Michigan coach is especially anxious of seeing the first two teams to estimate the strength of Princeton, which, it is rumored, Michigan will meet next year.

Travels 4,000 Miles to See School Game

EAST ORANGE, N. J., Nov. 18.—Sergeant Frederick S. Taylor, chief mechanic of Battery E, Fourth Field Artillery, U. S. A., probably holds the record for distance travelled to witness an interscholastic football contest, for he has come to this city for the purpose of seeing the annual Thanksgiving Day battle between the Barringer and East Orange High School elevens. Harry Taylor, a nephew of the soldier, is captain of the East Orange team. Sergeant Taylor's regiment is now stationed at Texas City, Tex., and it is estimated that he will travel about 4,000 miles back and forth in order to see the game. Sergeant Taylor when he asked for his leave of absence gave the interscholastic contest as his excuse.

YALE CRIPPLES ROUNDING TO.

Regular Lineup Will Be Fit for Harvard Melee.

NEW HAVEN, Nov. 18.—The members of the Yale varsity squad reported at the field this afternoon and were apparently in pretty good shape, though the knees of Marling and Dunn, which were injured in Saturday's game against Princeton, are due for one more baking before the team departs for Cambridge to meet Harvard. Carter and Pendleton are as good as fit, however, and the wrenched knees of the latter have disappeared completely, so that the lineup which starts the game against Harvard will be the same that started against Princeton unless something unforeseen happens.

There was no regular scrimmage for the varsity to-day, though it amounted to the same. The second team was lined up in the Harvard formations, and tried breaking through the varsity. This practice, which was rather hard, was the only work for the varsity, as the coaches want the men to be in excellent shape for the starting of the Harvard game next Saturday.

The playing of Knowles at right halfback does away with the story circulated that he is likely to be retired in favor of Guernsey, who replaced him during the second period last Saturday. Guernsey will not be put in until it is time to kick a goal and because of the superiority of Knowles' punting it is likely that Guernsey will remain in only a few minutes.

The squad of coaches at the field to-day included Burr Chamberlain, who demonstrated the Harvard ball on Penn's 12 yard camp, Carl Flanders, Fudge Hoffington, Tom Shevlin, George Adee, Guy Hutchinson and William H. Corbin.

To-morrow night the team will be dined by the faculty at the Yale Hotel. The stadium is built, there will be no work at all on the present field. In honor of this the student body will march to to-morrow and cheer the team.

FRESHMEN OUTPLAY PENN.

Defeat Varsity in Discouraging Game by Score of 7 to 6.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 18.—The first scrimmage of the Pennsylvania varsity in preparation for the Cornell game on Thanksgiving Day proved discouraging, as the little freshman team won the short scrimmage game to-day by a score of 7 to 6. The freshmen scored the touchdown by hard, snappy line bucking, combined with a pretty forward pass, given to Matthews, that netted thirty-five yards and landed the ball on Penn's 12 yard line. Geylin scored on the fourth down through a cleverly executed delayed pass and Matthews kicked the goal. Toward the latter part of the game the freshmen collected their somewhat and made four successive first downs, after which Marshall scored from the 6 yard line by a plain straight buck. He failed to kick the goal.

An X-ray of Russell's foot was taken this morning and it showed such improvement over the one taken yesterday that Dr. Russell decided to postpone the operation indefinitely unless the stone bubble becomes worse. Minda's shoulder also was examined carefully and all hopes of his playing in the Cornell game on Thanksgiving Day have been dashed. The doctor declared positively that he would not be allowed to play, or even to use his arm for over a month. Merrill will fill his berth on Thanksgiving Day. This leaves Penn in a bad position, as Minda always ran the team from his position at fullback. There is no one prepared to do this now, but Coach Brooks decided to wait to develop Merrill before the week is out.

BARRETT LOST TO CORNELL.

Star Quarterback and Punter May Not Get In Against Penn.

ITHACA, Nov. 18.—Barthie Barrett, Cornell's crack quarterback and punter, was missing from the practice on Alumni Field this afternoon, and there is considerable apprehension as to the extent of the injury he received in the Lafayette game last Saturday.

If by any chance Barrett should not be able to play for Cornell in the game against Pennsylvania, the chances of the team in that contest would be absolutely nothing, according to all the data of the season. That Barrett was injured more seriously in the game against Lafayette than was thought at first was obvious to-day when he failed to show up for practice and the coaches announced that he would be out of the lineup for the balance of the week. The expected balance of the week toward the end of the week, they said, but there was an absence of assurance in the way they talked about the situation. Barrett is not only one of the best punters in the East, as his work so far this season has demonstrated, but he also is the most efficient ground gainer in the Cornell back field.

The varsity was sent against the scrubs to-day in the first scrimmage of the week. For the first time the second team used the Pennsylvania formations and gave the varsity considerable trouble, making frequent gains about tackles and with the delayed passes and other Penn plays which have been a bugbear to Cornell all season. The entire varsity team with the exception of Barrett was in the lineup to-day and the men seemed to be in good shape. The coaches intend to drive the men as hard as possible, but the watchword in the Cornell camp is to avoid injuries.

It developed to-day that a slight change in Cornell's lineup might be expected in the Penn game. It is reported that on the offense and defense Penn will play at right end, but on the defense he may change places with Philippi, the left halfback.

Texas Beat Team in Southwest.

AUSTIN, Tex., Nov. 18.—By defeating the Kansas Aggies by a score of 46 to 0 to-day the University of Texas made good its claim to the Southwest championship. Playing on a muddy field, the Longhorns displayed wonderful form and expect to give Notre Dame a hard battle on Thanksgiving Day.

SEVEN COACHES LINE UP AGAINST HARVARD

Alumni Give Varsity Whirl of Strenuous Proportions to Wind Up Busy Day.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 18.—Harvard continued its brisk work in the Stadium this afternoon, the seven coaches trying hard to get the much desired ginger and fight into the eleven. The older men are not quite satisfied with the way things are going, being shown by the long, hard drill on play and the constant coaching that is still going on for the players on the forward line. Two of the regulars watched the play from the sidelines this afternoon, neither Bradlee nor Gilman being in the lineup. Bradlee has been lame since the Brown game, but until work started to-day it was expected that he would be in his place. Bradlee was working with Mahan and Brickley and fitted in well. Gilman, who was in yesterday's drill, appears to be in shape, but in down a little line perhaps. In his absence Cowen got back into the game, being at guard, while Hitchcock and Storer played tackle.

For the first part of the afternoon the team worked out its plays against the second team, this practice not being particularly hard. After that the regulars went through their plays against a rush line comprising seven coaches, led by Hitchcock, however, there was no backfield. Crawford, Bradlee, Paul and Lothrop with Wittington, Tommy Campbell, Harry Gardner, Ham, Toppet and Dick Wiegsworth comprised the veteran force and for almost an hour they offered a stiff defence against the first string's attack. The varsity men, however, were not very lively, but after work was done to come back to the speed they showed before the Princeton game ten days ago. Trumbull, though, stirred things a little, while Hitchcock at last is showing some of the aggressiveness that marked his playing last fall.

The varsity used a lot of its new forward pass play after work was done on the 25 yard line. To-night the team spent the evening at the Country Club in Brookline. They will have some more work to-morrow, but on Thursday and Friday there will be little football in the Stadium except practice for the kickers.

INDIANS PLAN KICKING DISPLAY.

May Flash Succession of Field Goals Against Syracuse.

CARLEIGH, Pa., Nov. 18.—The Carlisle Indians turned out in full to-day for a thorough drill at rudiments in advance of the Syracuse game on Saturday. The Redskins concentrated on punting and kicking, and the coaches were very particular in their instructions. The team was drilled in the rudiments of the game, and the coaches were very particular in their instructions. The team was drilled in the rudiments of the game, and the coaches were very particular in their instructions.

Coach Warner has about decided not to return to Carlisle after the Syracuse game, but retire to Leicester, Mass., as he did last year, before the Brown game at Providence, and recuperate for the final event of his career.

The physical condition of the Redskins is remarkable. Not a single Indian is on the injured list, although the season nearly completed has been marked by some of the fiercest contests Carlisle ever had and more games have been played than by any other American team.

Coach Warner has been impressed on all sides for the way he has handled his team. In addition to the reasons stated by Capt. Ketcham, Warner, although he has developed many stars, does not believe in individualism. He believes that the spirit of athletics can be served best by subordinating the individual to the work of the complete football organization.

LEHIGH MEN FORCED TO REST.

Second Straight Day of It—Work to Be Resumed To-day.

SOUTH BETHLEHEM, Pa., Nov. 18.—The Lehigh varsity men were more than eager to get back in practice to-day, but adhering to their orders not to report until Wednesday, the regulars had to wait to another day off. The promise was held out that to-morrow the men again would be allowed to put on their moccasins and that all the work they had done to-day would be theirs the next three days. The unprecedented tactics of the coaches in ordering a complete two days lay off and absence from the training table, was than was before the most important move of the season, that with Lafayette, is regarded in high favor on all sides here. It assures that the Brown and White will go into the battle on Saturday with no traces of staleness.

Even though only the second string men, numbering twenty, were ordered out to practice to-day the work was behind closed gates. The scrubs were rehearsed in plays to be used against the varsity to-morrow, many of them being familiar Lafayette formations.

The scrubs put forth their best to-day, for among them the coaches are going to choose six men to-morrow to go back to the training table with the twelve regulars. Frank Cronin, Fabel, George Crawford, Ayrault and Thornton seem tonight to be the most likely men to go. Cahall, the varsity quarterback and end, was the only regular man on the field to-day. The scrubs were drilled at some length in drop kicks, as the coaches believe this feature may play a little figure in the Saturday's contest.

ARMY RETURNS TO GRIND.

Scrimmages an Hour in Secret and Makes Two Touchdowns.

WATER POOR, Nov. 18.—Getting back to hard work for the Navy, the Army squad ran through an hour's stiff scrimmaging in secret to-day. Two touchdowns made up the total score for the regulars. Hobbs and Hoge completed over a splendid flash of offensive strength. Benedict kicked well in his goal from placement drill. So did Woodruff. The former did not do any scrimmaging.

Hodgson, nursing a lame knee, has gone to the hospital for a few days. Huston's bad leg still keeps him on the side lines. To-day's drill took place on an improved artificial grass field, where the big field guns are parked, owing to the wretched condition of the Army's regular field after the snow and rain of Sunday.

Barringer Swamps South Side.

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 18.—Barringer High's eleven defeated the South Side High team by a score of 65 to 0. Barringer's superior teamwork was a big factor in the game. South Side had few opportunities to score and the game was too one sided to be interesting.

Poly Claims "B" Championship.

The number 13 has figured quite prominently in the football season of Poly Prep. Poly has played four games and won two. In the last game, the team scored 13 points. The record of the Poly eleven follows: Poly 13, Commercial 0; Poly 6, Penikill 17; Poly 13, Boys High 0; Poly 7, Adelphi 13.
